ROUNDED UP POKER PLAYERS

Officer Dan Renear rounded up four men at the Brunswick billiard hall last night and escorted them to the police station on a charge of playing draw poker. Renear watched them from back of the hall for over an hour before he broke in on their game. At the station they gave their names as William, William Mason, Harry Haywood and Charles Francis. These are but pseudonyms as their real names were C. Achl, W. McKinley, Herman Kuby and C. F. England. Ball was fixed at $25 in each case. During the afternoon Ed. Siemsen, Makana, E. Navarro and August Carvallo were also arrested on the charge of gambling. The police are making strenuous efforts to stamp out gambling. Loo Kim Moon was arrested for assault.

RECEIVED FOR THE EMPEROR

Chinese Consul Chang Tso Fan received at the consulate yesterday from 12 to 2 in honor of the birthday of the Emperor of China, who became 36 years of age. Vice-Consul Goo Kim and Secretary Li assisted the Consul in receiving the guests, among whom were the members of the Consular Corps and Federal and Territorial officials. Acting-Governor Atkinson paid his respects shortly after noon and drank a toast with the Consul to the Emperor. The Hawaiian Government band, stationed in the front lawn, played at 9 o'clock as a compliment to the Emperor on the part of the local government. The band also played from 12 to 2. The guests were regaled with refreshments including punch.

ROUGH ON THE SHARK.

In the British Navy the engineers have a curious way of killing sharks. They seal up a dynamite cartridge in an empty can and put the can inside a lump of pork. The pork is thrown overboard on a wire which has been connected with the shark takes the bait the engineer presses a button, which explodes the cartridge and kills the fish.—New York Globe.
